

FEMA INDIVIDUAL ASSISTANCE / HOUSING CONSULTANTS

Help the Nation Recover from 2017's Hurricanes

Hagerty Consulting (www.hagertyconsulting.com) is a well-respected, national emergency management consulting firm that is looking for exceptional new associates to join its hurricane recovery efforts. Ideal candidates will have strong core competencies (communication skills, logical thinking, attention to detail), the desire to make a difference by working with public sector clients, and an education in construction, utilities, housing relief, logistical and supply chain mechanics and related skills to the creation of housing resources or temporary communities. We are looking for consultants who can join the team immediately and commit to long-term recovery efforts.

JOB DESCRIPTION

The multi-billion-dollar hurricane recovery effort will require consultants to:

- Assist with housing program design and implementation
- Support and/or develop housing recovery plans for hurricane relief
- Represent FEMA on State-Led Housing Task Force
- Evaluate funding requests for affordable housing developments in affected areas
- Deliver technical assistance to any local agencies
- Prepare site plans and conceptual building designs for affordable housing developments on behalf of non-profit organizations
- Design, implement and manage systems to collect applicant intake status and provide analytics to support needs
- Manage work order processes, maintenance requests, and occupant lease-in/lease-out

The consultant must be comfortable interacting directly with home owners whom have experience loss, clients and local government offices, including senior managers and executives. Must be prepared for intense, challenging work environment and be experienced working in a team atmosphere but also able to deliver independently.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Minimum of a bachelor's degree
- Strong core competencies including: communication, logical thinking, attention to detail, and working on teams.
- Understanding of FEMA's Individual Assistance Program
- Experience in Delivery of Housing Options under Federal grant programs
- Strong knowledge of field construction: systems, practices, safety, and procedures
- of insurance and related issues including liability aspects and claims avoidance
- Ability to prepare clear technical, financial, administrative, and explanatory correspondences
- Excellent writing, communication, and problem solving skills
- Must be a U.S. citizen and be able to successfully complete a background and criminal history check.
- Prioritization for candidates who live in affected areas, or are willing to relocate to client work-site. Official travel may be authorized for candidates that meet client/firm requirements.

Those individuals who work best with Hagerty are self-starters, have strong core competencies (e.g., writing, analysis, oral communication, presentation, professionalism) and are comfortable working in challenging environments with minimal oversight. Other needed attributes:

- Ability to stay calm and poised under pressure and remain focused when working under tight deadlines.
- Flexibility, integrity, teamwork, and an unwavering commitment to excellence in all endeavors.
- Interest in helping public sector agencies succeed.

This opportunity is open to candidates that desire either full-time employment with benefits or independent contract work paid at a competitive hourly rate. Must be eligible to work in the United States and be able to successfully complete a background and criminal history check.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter (including salary expectation and geographic preference), and resume using the Apply Now button.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Hagerty Consulting, Inc. is fully committed to a strong equal opportunity program. As such, all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability. Hagerty Consulting does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of any status or condition protected by applicable federal or state law.