

ACTIVE THREAT MANAGER

Hagerty Consulting, Inc., is aggressively recruiting for an Active Threat Planner! As a nationally recognized, comprehensive homeland security and emergency management firm, our focus is on helping clients prepare for and recover from disasters. We are looking for candidates with professional experience in the development, maintenance, analysis, and review of active threat plans and policies. Full-time and independent consultant candidates will be considered. Compensation will be commensurate with experience. Candidates must be eligible to work in the United States.

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Active Threat Planner will assist in project management roles for our active threat preparedness programs. Hagerty Consulting, Inc. has developed an innovative approach to bringing stakeholders from across communities together to plan, train, and exercise for active threat events. It is a whole-community endeavor. This approach considers activities of the entire life-cycle of an active threat event: starting with prevention and continuing through from response to recovery.

The ideal candidate should have experience with the following:

- Carry out all directives related to the homeland security and emergency management programs in compliance with applicable local, state, and federal laws, published policies, best practices, and established procedures in developing active threat plans and policies.
- Review scope of work narratives for maintenance, analyses, and review of current plans and policies.
- Augment scopes of work as necessary to produce a comprehensive plan.
- Produce recommendations, improvements, priorities, and schedules relating to a safe, secure, and resilient active threat plan of action.
- Exercise the plan and evaluate its effectiveness with HSEEP compliance.
- Managing project and/or grant budgets.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

College degree mandatory. Knowledge and experience in homeland security and counter-terrorism, including in the fields of law enforcement, emergency management, fire and medical services, public administration, intelligence, and critical infrastructure sought.

- Three-to-five (3-5) years of professional experience.
- Considerable working knowledge of the four phases of emergency management, federal emergency management planning guidance, National Incident Management System, and incident command principles.
- Superior interpersonal and communications (written and verbal) skills.
- Experience coordinating preliminary design work of all hazards plans.
- Demonstrated ability to develop, write, and review all hazards plans with a focus on active threat scenarios.
- Ability to maintain confidential information.
- Skilled in group facilitation, program management, and disaster operations preferred.
- FEMA's Professional Development Series Certificate required. In addition, certification in E/L/G/K 146 HSEEP preferred.
- Active threat training including but not limited to ALICE; ALERRT; or FLET-C sought.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter that indicates geographic preference and/or flexibility to relocate and comprehensive resume. In addition, please submit a writing sample of a recent plan or exercise documents.
