WHO IS HAGERTY?

Hagerty Consulting, Inc. (Hagerty) is a full-service consulting firm that helps clients prepare for, respond to, and recover from disasters.

For over 20 years, we have assisted clients in securing and managing funding for critical programs, including those provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the United States (US) Treasury, and the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

Additionally, Hagerty has been a trusted partner in advancing initiatives across infrastructure, resilience, energy, housing, transportation, and community and economic development.

State, local, tribal, and territorial governments (SLTTs), non-profits, and other qualifying organizations have a unique opportunity to invest in their future by aligning with community priorities and leveraging various funding sources—including federal, state, and philanthropic funds.

Navigating the Federal Funding Landscape

Grant funding plays an essential role in helping public and non-profit entities finance critical investments in infrastructure, resilience, mitigation, community development, transportation, and other key functions. In today's dynamic and often unpredictable federal funding environment, Hagerty partners with clients to deliver a holistic approach to grants management, ensuring effective and sustainable outcomes.

Strategy and Planning

Hagerty leads strategic planning initiatives by reviewing federal and state programs, developing plans to secure funding, and facilitating capital planning and stakeholder engagement. We assess priorities and projects, aligning them with federal and state grant programs to maximize every dollar.

Program Assessment and Design

We assist in assessing unmet needs, designing targeted programs, scoping projects, and offering eligibility recommendations. With extensive experience in program design and implementation, we help clients achieve policy goals through strategies that address both immediate and long-term objectives.

Grant Writing and Application Development

Our team identifies high-impact grant opportunities, focusing on areas where clients achieve the greatest success. We support every aspect of grant writing, application development, market analysis, and data collection, empowering clients to secure the resources their communities need.

Grant and Program Management

With nearly $100 billion in grants managed, Hagerty brings unparalleled expertise in grant and program management. Our turn-key services encompass program and financial management, grant compliance, procurement, subrecipient monitoring, audit support, and other essential functions to ensure successful funding initiatives.
